

Acknowledgment of Receipt of HWS Parent Handbook

The Honolulu Waldorf School Parent Handbook (the “Handbook”) is available for viewing online on the HWS website, under the Parent Info section. The HWS website is www.honoluluwaldorf.org. The purpose of the Handbook is to explain what the School expects of you and your child/ren, and what you can expect from us. Although you may have read the Handbook in a previous year, please read it again since we revise it year to year. We encourage you to read the Handbook with your child/ren so that you are both “on the same page” in regards to School policies. When you and your child/ren have read the Handbook please sign this form and return it to the School front office. If you have any questions about what is written in the Handbook, please contact the School front office.

This form acknowledges that you and your child/ren understand that as a School student and parent, you and your child/ren are asked to support the School and its mission and to acquaint yourselves with and abide by School policies and procedures, including, but not limited to, the School Activities Policy. Specifically, you and your child/ren understand that a wide variety of inherently risky activities and programs are offered by the School, some of which might be considered unusual in other schools. These activities and programs reflect deeply the School’s culture, curriculum, and experience. Thus, you acknowledge that you have voluntarily enrolled your child/ren in the School, and you agree that your child/ren’s participation in such activities and programs is an integral part of the School’s curriculum and experience. You and your child/ren hereby release and hold harmless the School, its trustees, employees, volunteers, representatives, and agents from any and all liability, responsibility, or claim that may arise directly or indirectly out of your child/ren’s participation in such activities and programs.

You and your child/ren understand that this Handbook is for informational purposes only, and is only meant to be used by those affiliated with the School community. It is not intended to create, nor does it create, a contract or part of a contract in any way, including but not limited to, between the School and any parent, guardian, or student affiliated with or attending the School. You and your child/ren understand that the terms and conditions of the Enrollment Agreement signed by you determines your and your child/ren’s relationship with the School. The School reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to add, revise and/or delete its policies before, during, and after the school year and such updates need not be in writing or incorporated into this Handbook. However, when possible, any changes to the school’s policies will be provided to the school community 30-days prior to the effective change date.

Please read the following statement and sign the second page if the statement is true: “We have read and understood the contents of the Honolulu Waldorf School Parent Handbook and do agree to follow the School’s policies and procedures as outlined in the Handbook.”
